OAO - "Mound 202"

Single release on K-Werks, September 27, 2003.

After having released Ayesha - "Ghetto Princess" on his newly started label it is now time for OAO's first own release on K-werks. The single "Mound 202" is a follow up to the debut-EP "The Official Adventures of OAO" that was released 2002.

On "Mound 202" OAO continues to experiment with electronical beats and sounds to find different rythms and expand in his unique musical style.

On the CD you will also find "Mound (Original Version)" from "The Official Adventures of OAO" and the two new songs "Forage" and "VS".

OAO is an artist with nature as a repeated theme in his creations. This is clearly seen in the video for "Mound 202" which features ants in fictional atmospheres. The track itself also contains samples from ants.

The video is directed by Than whom is behind the animated video for the song "Fanatik R.I.P" by the hiphop group The Narcissists.
